MOROS OF JOLO AROUSED BY IMPRISONMENT OF LEADERS.

American Authorities Prepare to Send More Troops to the Island and Warships if Necessary

Manila, March 21.-There is a feeling of unrest in Jolo on account of the arrest and conviction of three prominent Moros, who raided and burned the Chinese district of Perang.

As a precautionary measure, General commanding the Department of Mindanno, has strengthened the Jolo garrison, and is preparing to send additional troops there.

In the event of an emergency the United States versels in Southern waters will be asked to co-operate with the troops in a demonstration designed to convince the Moros of the folly of an overt act.

General Sumner is going to Jolo in the hope of allaying the disturbances and convincing the Moros of the justness of the American policy and the folly of armed re-

The raid on Perang was wanton. Thirteen Chinese houses were burned.

The three ringleaders are friends of the Sultan of Jolo, and the people protested against their removal from Jole, but the sentence will be enforced. The prisoners are now on their way to Bilidid prison, Manila. One of the prisoners led a raid in Mindanao in 1802. He captured eleven natives and held them as slaves. The Government failed to arrest him until he was taken into custody for participation in the Perang raid.

Refuses to Accompany Him to Four Courts Until Policeman Threaten to Summon Patrol Wagon.

Marshal Sechrist of Kirkwood had a trying experience with Mary Hunter, 12 years old, at Tweifth and Market streets yesterday about noon. The suburban official was forced to call upon a policeman to assist him in getting the girl to the Four Couts.

Mary was found in Kirkwood Friday night. She was barefooted and crying from the cold. She declared that her parents were dead and that she had been living with an aunt at Fourteenth street and Chouteau avenue. She said her aunt had mistreated her and she ran away. She went to Kirkwood on a street car.

went to Kirkwood on a street car.

Marshal Sechrest brought the girl to St.
Louis on a Suburban car yesterday morning.

He started to walk from Locust street to the Four Courts with her. As Market street reached it dawned upon the girl where the was going.

"Are you taking me to the Four Courts?"

No: we are just going down that way. I think I can get a good home for you."

I think I can get a good home for you."

answered the Marshal.

"Tes, you are," exclaimed the girl, "You are going to take me down to those horrid police. Well, I'm not going, that's all."

The child began crying and refused to take another step. Several persons who were passing were attracted by the crying girl. They stopped. Soon others gathered around and it was not long before a crowd had surrounded officer and child.

"I saw that she had me fouled," said the Marshal afterward and "I thought the best thing to do was to summon a policemen to bring her down. A patroiman was attracted by the crowd that gathered around us and I explained my predicament to him. His threat to summon a patrol wagon had its effect and the girl came on."

Captain Reynolds, into whose custody the child was committed, sent her to Matron Kintzing. Her aunt, Mrs. Alma Stringer, was notified and took Mary home yesterday afternoon, a truce having been arranged between them.

BUTCHERS ASK ENFORCEMENT OF SUNDAY-CLOSING LAW.

Appeal to Governor Dockery Asking That All Branches of Business Be Suspended on Sabbath.

The St. Louis Butchers' Union has sent a communication to Governor Dockery urging him to devise means to enforce the Sundayclosing law throughout the State. The appeal asks that all branches of business be ed on Sunday, as well as sale places of amusement.

The letter cites that the laws relative to closing places of business are violated in St. Louis, and that no attempt is made by the local authorities to pros or close up business. An extract from the letter is as follows:

"In St. Louis, saloons, groceries with saloon licenses, meat markets, concert halis and theaters are wide open on Sunday, In 1994 a World's Fair is to be held in St. Louis and as it is important that the thou-sands of visitors from abroad shall receive a good impression of our city and State, how better illustrate our practical faith and the results of our Christian civilization than by a religious observance of the Lord's day? In view of the unenviable notoriety St.

"In view of the unenviable notoriety St. Louis is receiving on account of the exposed boodle element and the immoral resorts under police protection, something should be done in the way of moral purification. A rigid enforcement of the Sunday-closing laws would close concert halls and dramshops, the great breeders of immorality and crime, and their evil influence would be lessened one day weekly.

"The St. Louis Butchers' Union recognizes and appreciates the delicacy of State interference with the sovereignty of towns and cities, but when towns and cities allow open violation of the fundamental laws of the State, made for the protection and best interest of all citizens, such corporations, like individuals, became violators of the law, and are proper subjects for State discipline. The foundation of government is not alone in the laws, but in their observance."
